David Bach on How to Get Rich

David Bach's bestselling book The Automatic Millionaire has provided counterintuitive, yet common sense financial advice for a new generation seeking both wealth and retirement help. In this interview with Canadian journalist Allan Gregg, Bach outlines some of his basic concepts, including the importance of automating your income (instead of budgeting), why you should both pay your debt down and invest at the same time, and why home-ownership should be the main goal of anyone seeking financial security. With a no-nonsense attitude that views proper money management as a means to attain personal freedom, Bach has helped both his clients and readers achieve wealth with a surprisingly small set of guidelines.

Start Late, Finish Rich: A No-Fail Plan for Achieving Financial Freedom at Any Age

In Start Late, Finish Rich, David Bach takes the "Finish Rich" wisdom that has already helped millions of people and tailors it specifically to all of us who forgot to save, procrastinated, or got sidetracked by life's unexpected challenges.

Whether you are in your 30s, 40s, 50s, or even older, Bach shows that you really can start late and still live and finish rich, and you can get your plan in place fast. In a motivating, swift read you learn how to ramp up the road to financial security with the principles of spend less, save more, make more, and most important, live more. And he gives you the time-tested plan to do it.

David Bach gives you step-by-step instructions, phone numbers, and website addresses, everything you need to put your Start Late plan into place right away. And he shares the stories of ordinary Americans who have turned their lives around, at 30, 40, 50, even 60 years of age, and are now financially free. They did it, and now it's your turn. With David Bach at your side, it's never too late to change your financial destiny. It's never too late to live your dreams. It's never too late to be free.
